STUDENT ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT CRESCENT SCHOOL OF DIALYSIS, LLC

Payment may be made in cash, check, or credit card. Crescent School of Dialysis does not participate in any state or federally backed financial assistance. Upon the complete discretion and approval of the clinical director, the amount deposited and the total cost of the program may be arranged with the student.

Refund/Tuition Reimbursement Policy: The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. In addition, you have the right to cancel or withdrawal from the class at any point you like. The total classroom hours here at Crescent School of Dialysis is 144 hours. The amount of refund is based on several factors. The classroom portion of the program costs a total of $5000.00. The refund will depend upon the hours spent in class minus any material or registration fees. After determining the balance minus any fees, the refund will be based upon the following table:

- If after completing one week (13.5 hours) of the program but less than two weeks (27 hours) – the student will receive a 90% refund.
- If after completing two weeks of the program (27 hours) but less than three weeks (40.5 hours) - the student will receive an 80% refund.
- If after completing three weeks of the program (40.5 hours) but less than four weeks (54 hours) - the student will receive a 70% refund.
- If after completing four weeks of the program (54 hours) but less than five weeks (67.5 hour) - the student will receive a 60% refund.
- If after completing five weeks of the program (67.5 hours) but less than six weeks (81 hours) - the student will receive a 50% refund.
- If after completing six weeks of the program, there will be no refundable money.

If the student decides to drop the class at this point, they may complete the rest of the class as some point in the future at the discretion of the student (depending upon availability and approval from the director at Crescent School of Dialysis). The amount of the refund will also depend upon all the nonrefundable materials provided to them, such as lab fees, books, uniforms, etc., as well as any services provided, such as physical exams or CPR certification, if applicable. If the student has made prior arrangements for a deposit for future services such as CPR training but had not received such services, all money will be refunded to the student. All refunds will be paid within 30 days of withdrawing from the program. The student must submit in writing any and all requests for withdrawing from the program and present the request to the admissions director from Crescent School of Dialysis. You must submit in writing if you want to cancel training; you cannot cancel by telephone. An applicant rejected by the school is entitled to a refund of all monies paid.

If the student receives federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal financial aid funds. Please note that this institution does not participate in any federal or state financial aid programs.

STUDENT ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT CRESCENT SCHOOL OF DIALYSIS, LLC

If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur:

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including garnishing an income tax refund; and
2. The student may not be eligible for any other government financial assistance at another institution until the loan is repaid.

Initial : STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL: The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

The date by which the student must exercise his or her right to cancel or withdraw:

If after paying the entire $6000.00 for the Basic Hemodialysis Program and the student has failed the final exam, the student will be refunded any money paid for extra services paid for but had not received, such as clinical externship, CPR training, etc. All refunds will be paid within 30 days of withdrawing from the program. The student must submit in writing any and all requests for withdrawing from the program and present the request to the educational director. You must submit in writing if you want to cancel training; you cannot cancel by telephone. Student termination from the program or abandonment (not showing up for classes) for three weeks from the program are also considered mandatory withdrawing from the program and are subject to the above mentioned refund table. An applicant rejected by the school is entitled to a refund of all monies paid. If the student obtains a loan, the student will have to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student receives federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal financial aid funds. If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund Disclosures:

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.
